SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION

Coins (Commemorative) Regulations Order 2023

(made: 5 May 2023)
(commencement: on publication)
(published: 9 May 2023)

I make these regulations by order under section 22 of the Currency Ordinance 1987 in accordance with section 66(2)(e) of the Falkland Islands Constitution Order 2008 because in my judgement the matter is too unimportant.

1. Title

This order is the Coins (Commemorative) Regulations Order 2023.

2. Commencement

This order comes into force on publication in the Gazette.

3. New commemorative coins

(1) For the purposes of section 6(5)(a) of the Currency Ordinance 1987, the Commissioners may arrange the minting of the coins described and specified in the Schedule to this Order.

(2) The Schedule specifies —

- (a) the denomination, fineness, weight, diameter, quality, shape, edge and number of the coins authorised by paragraph (1);
- (b) the tolerance or remedy which may be permitted in respect of variations from the standard weight, diameter and fineness of the coins; and
- (c) the design of the obverse and reverse of the coins.

4. Coins as legal tender

The coins specified in the Schedule are legal tender in the Falkland Islands in the amount of their denomination.

EXPLANATORY NOTE
(not part of the order)

Section 6(5)(a) of the Currency Ordinance 1987 (the Ordinance) gives the Commissioners of Currency the right to arrange for the minting of coins of such denominations, weight, form and design and made of such metal or metals as may be prescribed. Section 9 also specifies requirements relating to amounts of notes and coins having legal tender.

Section 22(a) of the Ordinance gives the Governor in Council the power to make regulations by order to prescribe anything that is required to be prescribed by the Ordinance. Section 6(5)(a) requires the prescription of the denomination, weight, form, design and metal composition of coins that the Commissioners arrange to be minted.

This Order makes regulations prescribing commemorative coins for the coronation and birthday of His Majesty King Charles III for purposes of section 6(5)(a) of the Ordinance.
