Dated 11 January 2023

A. M. BLAKE C.M.G.,
Governor.

Note: Section 57A of the Taxes Ordinance provides for deductions from income for tax purposes of donations of £50 or more made to registered charities in any calendar year. Written evidence from the charity of the total amount of donations made to the charity in the calendar year must be provided to the Commissioner of Taxes.

Approved charities are:-

(a) bodies which are registered as a charity under the Charities Act 1960 as it applies to the Falkland Islands; and

(b) any body of persons or trust which appears on the approved list of charities. The bodies "on the approved list" are charities established overseas which are not registered under the Charities Act 1960 in the Falkland Islands. They have been approved for tax deduction purposes.
